1) Journey of Generosity (JOG)

A Journey of Generosity focuses on the transforming power of living a generous life. A JOG retreat will walk you through a conversation of what the fullness of God's joy and living more generously looks like in your life. It includes stories of generous givers, discussions, reflection, and bible study. This experience enables you to better process the biblical message of generosity. Watch this 2.5 minute video for more information or visit www.GenerousGiving.org.

Commitment: One 8 hour day, or an overnight retreat (4 hours in the evening and 4 hours the following day).

Intended Audience:

- Men or women; individuals or couples; Bible study groups; church committees; Boards of ministries; or any group who desires to experience that it is more blessed to give than receive.

2) Delighting in Purpose, Passion and Joyful Generosity

Align your God-given gifts and purpose with the passions of your heart! Discover how to act on hidden generosity opportunities by filtering your actions through your purpose. Also learn how to align your resources and beliefs with personal values. Leave with a clear view of who you are as a generous believer and what your plan of action looks like for the future.

Commitment: 2-4 hours.

Intended Audience: Any woman, regardless of age, career path or life experience, who wishes to:

- Humbly seek God and equip herself to better live out her calling and purpose; and,
- Grow in generosity, align her heart with God, and imitate His grace.

Churches, ministries, and businesses are invited to gather interested women to attend. Professional advisors are encouraged to invite female colleagues and clients who may benefit from attending.

3) Family Legacy and Your Influence through Generosity

Let's get practical. Those of faith are driven to impact their families, churches, and the world around them. We know it is more blessed to give than receive. But what are the practical next steps? This workshop will explore “Charitable Giving 101” – smart gifting strategies and family legacy. You will learn how to reduce the cost of your charitable gifts by more than half so that you and your family can increase giving to your church and favorite charities. You will leave feeling inspired and empowered to help create a more generous world!

Commitment: 1.5 hours.

Intended Audience:

- Churches, ministries, schools or businesses are invited to gather interested parties to attend.
- Individuals, business owners, financial planners, estate planners, and attorneys looking to be empowered with their charitable giving.
- Professional Advisors are encouraged to invite colleagues and clients who may benefit from attending.

4) Redefining Business Profits for the Kingdom

Your business is most likely your single greatest financial investment. Why not make it count for the Kingdom? Whether you're selling your company or simply feel overwhelmed with taxes and limited cash flow, National Christian Foundation offers IRS-approved strategies to help business owners:

- Turn taxable dollars into charitable dollars.
- Eliminate Capital Gains.
- Increase cash flow for lifestyle and giving.
- Build a lasting legacy.

Commitment: 1.5 hours.

Intended Audience:

- Churches, ministries, schools or businesses are invited to gather interested parties to attend.
- Individuals, business owners, financial planners, estate planners, and attorneys looking to be empowered with their charitable giving.
- Professional Advisors are encouraged to invite colleagues and clients who may benefit from attending.
